CHRISTMAS TREE.

We publish to-day a programme of the songs and order of exercises at the Christmas tree at the Episcopal church to-night. The ladies that have been engaged in collecting for this object have made very fair success in their endeavors and the tree will be filled with presents for all the scholars of the school of the church. Exercises will commence at 7 o'clock and an early attendance of all who participate in the exercises together with the audience who wish to witness the presents from the Christmas tree is requested.

MARRIED.—James F. Wilkins, it will be seen by a notice in another column, committed what we considered a rash act last evening. He has proved to be a courageous wife, for he has taken unto himself a wife, uniting his fortunes with Miss Louisa J. Stocks. It is to be hoped he'll never sell short. Our thanks are due to the newly wedded pair for a generous supply of wine and cake, in the former of which we irrigated our sentiments respecting the happy pair.

BALL AT BULLIONVILLE.—Our neighbors at Bullionville give notice in this morning's Record that they will give a social ball at Bullionville, at the Meadow Valley Hotel, this evening. The managers are E. M. Crane, A. T. Eastland, James Conway, S. B. Martino and Thomas Gillan. These names are sufficient guarantee that everything will be at fault and that all guests from Pioche will be made to feel at home and partake of the general enjoyment.

MINERS' MARKET.—The Miners' Market will to-day make a display of beef, mutton, pork, etc., that will delight the heart of an epicure. Whole beefs, halves and quarters, also mutton and pork cut in the same proportions, will be displayed to the astonished gaze of the multitude. All those wishing a well selected roast for Christmas call and examine and you will be satisfied to buy.

HIGH MASS.—At 12 o'clock to-night (Christmas Eve) High Mass will be celebrated at the Catholic Church, the Rev. Father Monteverde officiating. The choir will be led by Charles Wierhold, on the organ. Mrs. Judge Rivers is the soprano and will be assisted by Messrs. H. Horst, H. Haure and Wm. Rogers.

THE WEATHER.—The weather in Pioche during yesterday was all that could be desired by the "oldest inhabitant," but to-wards evening it commenced to cloud up, and by 7 o'clock there was a bright sprinkle of rain, which continued for about an hour, making the streets muddy and the general appearance of things very gloomy.

JUSTICE COURT.—Everything was very quiet yesterday at the office of the Justice of the Peace in consequence of the main portion leaving town for Raymond & Ely mine. The shipments this week continue to be about the same amount; one train running daily.

MARTIN MARRIAGE.—Master Marrons will please take notice that the Blue Lodge meets Saturday night for the purpose of electing officers of that lodge. All members in good standing being members of that lodge are requested to be present to attend to business.

BULLION.—Twenty-two bars of fine bullion are now on exhibition at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office, valued at about $38,000. A fair showing for Pioche.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

To those who are going to make Christmas presents we would call their attention to H. Stein's advertisement for fancy goods, to J. Levin & Co. for tobacco and cigars and fancy goods; Dr. Lee a large assortment of fancy goods; J. B. Stephens, A. J. Mason and Morton & Schweiger, for boots and shoes, P. Heitzelman for a large assortment of jewelry, watches and diamonds, Mrs. Mahoney for the latest styles of hats, flowers and ladies' goods; J. Meyers & Bro., an extensive assortment of dry goods; to Jonas Cohn for clothing and furnishing goods, also to Jos. Rich for a like assortment of the latest styles of clothing, hats caps and furnishing goods; Wierhold & Goodman, neatly bound diaries, select poems, stationery, etc.; G. R. Alexander, perfumery, soap, etc. Call at these stores and examine goods.

CHRISTMAS.—Everybody and the rest of the children are getting ready for Christmas. Children are having their long stockings cleaned ready to hang up for "old Santa Claus" visit, the Christmas trees are being prepared, and the storekeepers are appearing with smiling countenances to all of their customers. Stores are stocked with goods that can be sold readily and the general appearance of Pioche is bright.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—Following is the order of exercises at the Christmas Tree this evening: First—"Sunday-school Volunteer Song;" second—"Glee Club;" third—"Reading and Prayer;" fourth (song)—"The Angels Singing in the Silent Night;" fifth—"Address;" sixth—"Glee Club;" seventh—"Distribution of Presents;" eighth (song)—"Holy Night;" ninth—"Benediction."

At the annual election of Keystone Royal Arch Chapter, No. 6, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. H. Patchen, High Priest; Johnson, Vivian King; A. J. Blair, Scribe; Charles Wierhold, Treasurer (re-elected); H. Krause, Secretary (re-elected). Closed until the first stated convocation, on the 13th of January, 1876. A special meeting will be held by the Chapter on Thursday, December 30th, 1875.

PEOPLE'S MARKET.—The People's Market, on Meadow Valley street, will to-day exhibit, for the benefit of the public, a magnificent display of beef of all kinds, from a tender calf to the finest display of mutton. Roasts for a Christmas dinner will be in regular order in this market. Purchasers will do well to apply for these for their supply for a No. 1 Christmas dinner.

WEDDING CAKES.—Gibfried & Brischner, at the San Francisco Bakery, on Meadow Valley street; H. Horst, at the New York Bakery, on Lacour street, and the San Jose House, Main street, and the Granger Restaurant, on Lacour street, will furnish, to order, any kind of fruit cake, pie, etc., for Christmas dinners or entertainments.

A PARTY composed of Colonel U. E. Allen, Johnny Ernst, Fred Pierce and E. Thompson left Pioche yesterday morning, with a four-hand team, for Wilson's creek, at Wilson's creek, to attend the marriage of W. L. McKee to Miss Melissa Radford.

RACES.—Preparation is being made for the races to come off at the Four-mile House on Christmas, and there will doubtless be some lively races on the boards.

RAYMOND & ELY ORDERS.—Jos. Rich takes all due bills or time orders of the Raymond & Ely mine without discount at the Opposition Store.

SOCIAL PARTY.—Don't forget the social party to take place to-night, at the residence of Miss Freddie Grant, on Meadow Valley street.

A SILVER watch was lost on Main street yesterday. The owner would like to have the finder leave it at the Record office.

RACING TALK FOR CHRISTMAS DAY. at the Four-mile Wells is the principal topic of conversation now in Pioche sporting circles.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.

A fire this morning in Vessey street caused losses amounting to forty thousand dollars distributed among a number of occupants who are mostly insured.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—A Washington special says an ingenious dodge of Tom Scott has been brought to light within the day or two for the furtherance of his designs on the Pacific railroad business.

It is shown from documents at hand that a concerted scheme for the capture of the so-called patrons of inebriety, has been adopted throughout the Southern States, and through this instrumentality force is to be brought to bear on the members of Congress to vote the necessary appropriations during the coming session.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Dec. 23.—The Bank of Brandywine is now in the hands of an assignee, Wm. Jeffreys, cashier of National Bank of Chester county.

DETROIT, Dec. 23.—A Tribune special from Traverse city Michigan, announces the death, at East Bay, Grand Traverse county, of Henry Stiles, an old pioneer. He was the first white person born in Detroit at the time of Hull's surrender.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Evening Post says the committee representing the merchants of this city in the matter of freight rates, which has lately excited so much attention, had a conference this morning with Vice-President William H. Vanderbilt, of the New York Central Railroad. William E. Dodge, Chairman, said while they were now met to thank the railroad for what they had done in the matter, they wished to have it decidedly understood that they had no sympathy with the low prices which the railroad has been obliged to adopt. They would have been more gratified if Boston rates had been raised. It was for the interest of merchants that the railroad should secure a fair compensation in order that the latter might pay reasonable dividends and be able to expend money for the improvements for their facilities. Mr. Vanderbilt thanked the merchants for their expressions of good feeling and then read a letter from Col. Scott, of the Pennsylvania road, giving statement of the rates and reason for his ## non-attendance at the conference.

It is supposed the absence of Blanchard, of the Ohio road, was due to the same reason.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.

A dispatch from San Diego confirms the reports of anarchy in Sonora and there is a revolution in progress. The Yaqui Indians are in revolt. Gov. Pesqueira has levied a special tax to carry on war. Revolutionary parties are reported about to invade Sinaloa, and business is prostrated. No further demonstrations have been made by banditti at Campo. The presence of a posse from San Diego keeps them temporarily quiet, but they threaten revenge for shooting and hanging their comrades, in the recent raid with Cruse Lopez in command. Since the death of Chavez the Mexicans on the border with few exceptions are in league with the banditti. A company of cavalry will leave here tomorrow for San Diego.

MAJ. RICHARD ROMAN, for many years treasurer of this State and who served the country in the Mexican war, died in this city yesterday at the age of 63 years. Deceased was an uncle to Judge W. J. Wallace, at whose house he breathed his last. Maj. Roman was a native of Lexington, Ky.

Numberless Christmas festivities are announced for the next few days and the streets wear a holiday appearance. In the afternoon and evening Kearny street was almost impassable, owing to the throng engaged in purchasing and sight-seeing.

The Bohemian Club held their Christmas high jinks last evening and a number of the most prominent citizens were present. Speeches, songs and toasts occupied the evening. The club room was handsomely adorned with holiday decorations.

VIRGINIA, Dec. 22.—Another outbreak occurred in the Chinese quarters this evening. Rival Hop Woh and San Sing companies have been lying on their arms since the skirmish of two weeks ago. Each side has in the meantime imported fighters from California. Warfare preparations have been going on day and night till this evening. San Sing's retainers, opened fire from the loopholed building, corner of H and Union streets, upon the castle of Hop Woh, some sixty yards distant. Instantly the roof of the latter building was thronged with armed Chinamen, who returned vigorous fire. War soon became general throughout Chinatown. The sound of the firing caused tremendous excitement in the city. The police rushed to the ground in force, followed by numerous citizens, pistol in hand. Upon the advent of the whites the battle ceased. Two wounded Chinamen were found; one was shot in the back, and the other with a bullet hole in the neck, the latter probably fatally hurt. It is thought by the police that several men were killed and the bodies carried off and secreted. Up to 8:30 this evening twenty-three Chinamen were captured and lodged in the city prison. All were armed to the teeth in the early part of the evening. There was some talk of lynching Chinamen caught with arms upon them. Another skirmish is looked for before morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.—A dispatch from San Diego says courier arrived from San Rafael, capital of Lower California, reporting the revolutionists had attacked the place, killed Gov. Villagrana and twenty-nine others and had possession of everything. The report needs confirmation, but it is considered highly probable by those familiar with the affairs in the country.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Bullion in Bank of England decreased 697,000 pounds last week. Proportion of Bank reserve to liability, 41 1/2 per cent. Bullion withdrawn from Bank on balance to-day, 207,000 pounds.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—Specie in the Bank of France increased 2,075,000 Francs the past week.

MADRID, Dec. 23.—The Epoca says when the Carlist insurrection is suppressed an efficient army will be maintained in Cuba as a measure of precaution and that heavy guns will be placed on the coast. At the same time Spain will propose to the United States a new and mutually advantageous treaty of commerce. Subscriptions have already been opened to defray the cost of manufacturing heavy guns for the defense of Cuba.

MONTREAL, Dec. 23.—Work has been found for fifteen hundred extra men on city improvements at seven cents an hour.

INDIAN CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.—As the winter months are nearing, and the time has come when the atmosphere is laden with moisture and water feels very wet, rheumatism is apt to become the prevailing disease, and any antidote that will insure a cure for this most troublesome complaint will certainly be appreciated. We therefore most cordially recommend an Indian remedy as told us by the famous Indian doctor, Dr. Phunt, of Black Rocks, who says in substance: "Remove the clothing entirely from the affected parts and seal yourself on a big ant's nest. Keep as quiet as you can. If added: 'By-and-by heap holler-pretty good.' Old forty-nine bachelors who are liable to exposure or saturation from diaphoretic would do well to cut this out and preserve it for future reference. [Lays Independent.]

PLINY OF ONE.—The ore houses of the Manhattan Company are full to overflowing with rich ore. All the prominent mines producing large quantities. The mill is running night and day, and more than the usual quantity of bullion is being turned out. At no time in their history has the mines of Reosa River District been so productive of permanence. In fact the mines, and correspondingly the town, are improving every day. [Austin Beville, 17.

ADVENTURE WITH A SHARK.

Paul Boynton, the famous diver, is writing sketches of life beneath the waves for the Gentleman's Magazine of London. In one of his articles he tells the following story of a rather uncomfortable experience: "I was down on a nasty rock bottom. A man never feels comfortable on them; he can't tell what big creature may be hiding under the huge quarter-decks and leaves which grows there. The first part of the time I was visited by a porcupine fish, which kept sticking its quills up and bobbing in front of my helmet. Soon after I saw a big shadow fall across me, and looking up there was a shark playing about my tubing. It makes you feel chilly in the back when they're about. He came down to me sick as I looked up. I made at him and he sheered off. For an hour he worked at it, till he could stand it no longer. If you can keep your head level it's all right, and you're pretty safe if they're not on you sharp. This ugly brute was twenty feet long, I should think, for when I lay down all my length on the bottom, stretched a considerable way ahead of me and I could see him beyond my feet. Then I waited. They must turn over to bite and my lying down bothered him. He swam over me three or four times and then skulked off to a big thicket of sea weed to consider. I knew he would come back when he'd settled his mind. It seemed a long time waiting for him. At last he came viciously over me, but like the time before, too far from my arms. The next time I had my chance, and ripped him with my knife as neatly as I could. A shark always remembers he's got business somewhere else when he's out, so off this fellow goes. It is a curious thing, too, that all the sharks about will follow in the trail he leaves. I got on my hands and knees, and as he swam off I noticed four shadows slip after him. I saw no more that time. They do not like my company."
